Both sites must have a board near the site entrance giving the name of the contractor and the contact phone number for the site manager.

Whilst the Parish Council is concerned about issues you may have, your first point of call should be directly to that site's manager.

If the issue continues, then BPC are happy to get clear photo's, or emails about it. These issues will be raised directly with the developer at monthly meetings. “

Clerk to Budbrooke Charities

(Budbrooke United Charities and Budbrooke Educational Foundation)

The Clerk of nearly 25 years is retiring so there is a rare opportunity for someone with an interest in the local community to take on this role.

The Clerk needs to have basic skills in administration, book-keeping and taking minutes of the meetings which are held a minimum of four times each year, currently by Zoom. The work takes up just a few hours each month. The Clerk needs to ensure that the purposes of the charities are carried out in accordance with the governing documents.

For further information or to register your interest, please email budbrookecharities@gmail.com

TRUSTEE TO BUDBROOKE CHARITIES

Budbrooke Charities, Budbrooke Educational Foundation and Budbrooke United Charities?

We are looking for a trustee who wants to be involved with the local community. The charities cover the (civic) Parish of Budbrooke only.
